Loosies

February 3rd

A young New York pickpocket named Bobby is confronted by a woman with whom he has a passionate one-night affair. She's pregnant, and Bobby is forced to reevaluate his life, take responsibility for his new child and win over the girl who might just be perfect for him. Starring Peter Facinelli, Michael Madsen, Christy Romano, Jaimie Alexander and Vincent Gallo, this fast-paced film has romance, comedy and drama all rolled into one.

Perfect Sense

February 17th

Susan is a busy scientist that has given up on love – until she meets Michael, a talented chef. As they embark on a sensual adventure, an epidemic begins to rob people around them of their sensory perceptions.

Tomorrow, When the War Began

February 24th

The lives of eight high school friends in a coastal town are violently upended by an unforeseen invasion. Cut off from their families and their friends, the eight teenagers must learn to escape, survive and fight back against hostile military forces.

Declaration of War

March 16th

An exuberant and deeply moving film following a young couple who must face the ultimate test when they discover their newborn child is very ill. Gathering their friends and family together, they confront this ordeal together as a form of warfare.

The Forgiveness of Blood

March 30th

A modern Albanian family is torn apart by murder, resulting in a traditional blood feud that marks young Nik as the prime target and forces his sister, Rudina, to leave school in order to take over the family business.
